

Minerals Technologies Inc. Promotes Thomas J. Meek to Senior Vice President, General Counsel, Corporate Secretary and Chief Compliance Officer

October 17, 2011

NEW YORK, October 17-Minerals Technologies Inc., (NYSE: MTX) announced today that Thomas J. Meek has been promoted to senior vice president, general counsel, corporate secretary and chief compliance officer.

"This change reflects the level of responsibilities and roles that Tom Meek has undertaken, as well as the leadership he has demonstrated, in improving the overall effectiveness of our Corporate Governance and Legal initiatives since he joined Minerals Technologies," said Joseph C. Muscari, chairman and chief executive officer.

Mr. Meek joined Minerals Technologies in 2009 from Alcoa Inc., where he served as deputy general counsel. In that position he was chief litigation counsel for all global litigation, claims, governmental investigations and subpoenas. In addition, he also served as Alcoa's global compliance director.

Minerals Technologies Inc. is a global resource- and technology-based growth company that develops, produces and markets worldwide a broad range of specialty mineral, mineral-based and synthetic mineral products and related systems and services. The company recorded sales of $1.0 billion in 2010.
